FOREWORD

As we traveled down the "Path of Conquest" during the school year 1955-56, we had our good times . . . our fun . . . our work . . . and our studies . . . Encountering detours of hardships and obstacles, we kept ever before us our goal of success, and came, at last, to the path's end—wiser, happier, and proud of the things we'd done. Here, in this East Wind, we hope to bring to you some of our experiences while traveling down this—"Our Path of Conquest." . . .

WE EXCELLED . . . . .

Along every path in life there continuously seems to be one outstanding person who leaves you a lasting impression—so it is with Mrs. Parker. She has left an impression of warmth, helpfulness, and understanding on all the Senior Class this year. With her untiring interest and enthusiasm in us she has crept into that warm spot in our hearts reserved only for "special folks." It is with genuine pleasure and pride that we, the Senior Class, dedicate this 1956 East Wind to her in hope that through this annual she will receive as much pleasure as she has given.

With these leaders our Rotarians of tomorrow attend a luncheon each Tuesday of their particular month at the Elk's Club.

This organization has played a very important part in our school and community affairs, and they deserve a great deal of credit for all the time and effort they have spent in trying to bring to East a top-notch band.

CHEERLEADERS

Go, East, Go! These are the familiar words that were heard at all our ball games. Trudging through pep rallies, practices, mud, cold and rainy weather, this faithful group led our cheering section through victory and defeat.

FOOTBALL 1955-'56

East High's new coach, Bill Eanes, whipped into shape a group of inexperienced boys that netted him "Coach of the Year" honors here this year. The team was headed by its captain, and in my opinion, the best team player that ever hit East, Harry Johnson. Joe McLaughlin and Jimmy Earnhardt, the only returning senior letterman, did a good job in the comparatively light Eagle line. Junior standouts were, hard hitting Wayne Bramble, Jim Gross, Tommy Skinner, George Thurston, Carlisle Davenport, and Don Phillips. Ed Chesnutt was the sophomore star. The Eagles battled their way to four wins and six defeats. Most of these defeats were by one touchdown, as you all remember the thrilling game in which the Eagles almost upset Harding. This writer expects to see East High show everybody that the county schools are here to stay in the future.

Head coach Bill Eanes, just out of college, made a very fine start in the coaching field here this year. Along with his two able assistants, John Needy and Bill McGinn, he worked wonders with a small and inexperienced team. A great deal of honor should be bestowed upon these three men, who always remember that they are building men as well as football players.

BASKETBALL 1955-'56

The East High cagers are proving themselves to be a truly great ball club this year. At the time this annual went to press the Eagles had won eleven straight games and lost none. Finishing strong last year, the Eagles have shown the city schools that they are going to be right in there fighting all the way. Led by the captain Bobby Kiker, Doug Pressley, and Trady Johnston, the Eagles have played an exceptionally fine defensive game with sophomore John Crump and Ed Chesnutt fighting for the ball all the way. Junior standouts, Lewis Carpenter and Carlisle Davenport have shown themselves to be a great asset to the team. Coach John Needy deserves a great deal of praise and credit for the wonderful job he is doing. This year's team is showing the dudes from the city that the "Country Lads" are here to stay.

Come on boys let's win this game!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The East High girls' team has started off a little slow, but the future holds a brighter outlook. Frances Phillips, capt.; Freda Shore and Elsie Harris are the staunch guards. Sue Moore has been the big gun in the scoring department, followed closely by Celia Hinson and Martha Price.

Mrs. Dewitt has done a fine job with these girls and we are expecting even greater things in the future.

And this is practice?

T R A C K

The 1955 track team showed a great deal of promise for the future. The honors were brought to the team by captain Leslie Taylor, James Blakley, and Johnny Gray. East placed in every meet it entered and Taylor and Blakley placed in the state meet. Boys with promise that will be returning are Bill Dansby, Jimmy Earnhardt, Fred Wilson, and Vickey Eagle. This team, although inexperienced, should show up well under the fine coaching of John Needy.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Why Eleanor Outen! How in the world are you and where's your husband, Bill Locke? And what are you two doing with yourselves these days?"

"Well, Bill just bought half interest in Lance Company and I'm a private secretary to the Mayor of Matthews."

"Marvelous," I said. "Don't you just love these class reunions? The class of '56 was really the greatest!"

Then I turned to my millionaire husband, Jeff Efird, and said, "Darling, get me another cup of punch, please. OH Look, there's Ruth Brown. Remember how they used to tease her about her name. Well, she lived up to it and she is a great jazz singer now."

"She should get together with Earnest "Stix" Curlee," he answered. "He reorganized his band and David Gaddy joined him with his harmonica."

"NNever mind that punch now. Look who I see. Fran Barbet. I wonder when she came back?"

"Hell o," she said with her usual bright smile. "My hus-been and I are here visiting Manya Creel and I was so happy when I heard about ze reunion."

"I hope you enjoy your visit," I managed to get in before I was swept away by the crowd.

"Would you look at this?" Jeff said as he handed me a piece of paper.

"BE SURE AND DROP BY MY LOT BEFORE THE SUPPLY IS EXHAUSTED"

Charlotte, N. C.

" must be sure to see her before we leave," I said.

"But there must be 500 people here," I thought. "How would we ever . . . "Oops! Excuse me . . . Glenda Bunn—I mean Beck. This is wonderful. Have you seen Carolyn Hall? I suppose you heard she's one of the ten best dressed in Charlotte this year."

"Yes, and say, Earl Wentz and Rachel Carr met by chance and decided to give a concert at the coliseum next month. And Pat King's the head nurse at Presbyterian Hospital now. I heard that those young docs really gave her the chase until she finally married one of them.

While I'm yapping I may as well gossip. I heard that David Dulin was arrested for trying to hold up a Hickory Grove Super Market. HE said all he wanted was some bubble gum."

"Glenda, I've just got to ask you something. Is it true that Barbara Pike Tweed was arrested for disturbing the peace by singing opera on the square? Really? Well I should have known that she'd do something impractical one day. Look Jeff, there's Phyllis Hord and her husband. She told me earlier this evening that she had a sitter from Frances Gordon's "Baby Sitters Bureau". Oh, I almost forgot to mention you got a letter from Bobby Davis. Remind me to let you read it. I heard he's quite famous these days for having the fastest gun in the West (Texas). Speaking of guns, there's Gail Jordan. I heard that she shot her fourth husband, but she survived the "chair" 2 times so they had to let her go free. I think Alan Elmore is the guy who pushed the "juice button"."

I stopped for a moment to catch a breath and think of something to say.

"You know, dear. Since Janet and Bobby Herron are the ones giving this brawl, I mean ball. I think we should try to find them and speak to them. And I've just spotted someone else we can speak to on the way. Joyce Faulkner! Over here! How are you?"

"Fine! Did you hear the bad news about Shirley Hargett doing a baton act at the Rose Bowl Game in California and falling and breaking her leg? You know I was chairman of the festival this year. Looks as though I'll be chairman of something as long as I live."

"We'll see you around, Joyce. Don't exhaust your brain!"

On the way to get Dave Gibbs to congratulate him for finally winning a jitterbug contest at a local dance Jeff said, "Why don't we sneak up on Norma Richmond Johnston and pull her "poodle cut". I figured she'd wack off the pony tail when she became a great lawyer. I think her husband Harry is still coaching at Notre Dame."

"Yes," I answered. "I wonder how they found time to." . . . And then it happened. I bumped into someone and knocked punch from here to there. When I turned around I saw John Ferrell standing with an empty cup in hand and punch dripping off his nose. After a thousand apologies, hubby and I wandered on.

Then I saw a beautiful bright red evening dress and I knew before I looked that it was Lynda Stansell. Off the dancing stage she's Mrs. Donnie Gardner and the mother of 3.

Someone tapped me on the shoulder and I turned around to find myself face to face with Bobby Chastain who told me that he and M. L. Walters were going to play a guitar duet. As I was asking about his family the whole party burst into cheers and applause and I scanned the room until I found the center of attraction. Then Vickey Eagle, Earnest Freeland, and Bobby Reid, burst into their famous rendition of "I'm A Coming To Your House." They never finished. Jerry McCorkle stole the show by swinging from the chandelier and drinking punch from Joyce Houston's shoe.

It was then that Jeff told me to look over in one corner. About 20 beautiful girls were huddled together and seemed to be arguing about something. Then Jack Steele broke away from them and ran out the door. The poor boy really looked frightened.

Then I heard a voice saying, "Pardon me. Would you like to sponsor a page on our church calendar? We expect them to be better this year and . . . " Very quietly I said, "Hell-o, Alice Pearson." With a red face she said, "I've just got calendars in my blood, I guess."

When I heard the laughter I knew it was Joy Lee Alexander. As usual she was bent double and nearly in convulsions over one of Zebbie Morris' jokes.

Naturally I was the one who noticed the crowd of men. They were just standing around content to look at the beautiful models; Jackie Brunk, Sybil Thomas, Elizabeth Ann Long, Nancy Christenbury, and Lib Newland.

The fan-fare startled me. The band leader, Bobby Byrum, announced a jitter-bug contest for all who were still young enough to take it. Before I had a chance to think Trady Johnston yanked me onto the floor and said, "Let's go girl! I've always wanted to get in on one of these things!" Also in the contest were Ellen Brewer and Wayne Brigman; Bobby Garmon and Nela Gahrmann; Roy Hartis and Doris Helms; and George Hedrick and Linda Little. Nobody lasted long enough to win but George and Linda got the prize for being the best matched dancing couple.

Then came the big moment. The crowd gathered around and Bobby struck up the band. Dum-dum, dum-dum, Charleston-Charleston! Bobby Little and Loretta Helms, naturally! They're still great!

"Oh, Oh, she's spotted me," I thought. It was Elizabeth Moore, writer of the gossip column for the Charlotte Observer. "Hi Gail! Say, did you know that Marvin Ashley has been sued for divorce by his 3rd wife on a non-support charge. He says he just doesn't like to work. And Billie Jo Atkinson has just completed her biography about Joe Collom called "Big Boy Lost". Anne Craig has consented to publish it.

Did you hear that the U. S. Government offered to bury Ray Cronin in Einstein's tomb but he told them there's no use waiting around for him because if he can't take it with him he isn't going.

Faye Culp has opened a new Beauty Salon and all of her operators, Hazel Freeman, Joyce Gribble, Jackie Gulley, and Barbara Hampton have gone blonde. Her only male operator is Clark McFadden and it's been rumored that she only hired him to draw customers.

Jewell Flowe has written a book titled, "How To Run Off and Get Married."

Harold Robinson, Eddie Revels, and Ed Moser have opened up a body shop called the "Shot-Hot Rod-Shop."

Vivian Vick has bought stock in "Sloan Novelty Industries". Polly's main attraction is Marcus Sinclair who demonstrates everything she has in stock."

"Elizabeth," I gasped, "how in the world do you dig up all of this info?" "Oh, it's easy," she said. "My assistant Frances Sneed goes around in disguise as "Vicky" the elephant since she is now allowed to roam the streets free. No one but her new manager, Nancy Stilwell, would think of such a thing. The only reason she got by with it is because the chief of police, Joe Steele, is an old friend.

I was at Benny Stevens' new modern dentist office the other day and overheard Barbara Heaton and Carleen Courtney talking about Ingrid Cooper. It seems she refused to return the diamond and mink coat when she broke her engagement to some "poor" fellow.

Bill Cathey is a great comedian now and Dick Dohrmann has literally run Tab Hunter out of Hollywood.

Jimmy Earnheart is playing first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers now and Holland Gladden is a radio announcer for station B E-B O-P, owned and operated by Clifford Grayson."

"Listen a minute," I managed to sneak in. "What ever became of Judy Hartiss and Ellen Sloan?"

"Oh, they're both math professors at U.N.C. Together they figured out a way to make 2 and 2 equal 5 besides the old Algebra method.

Linda Williams' husband gave her a red Jaguar which matches her hair. It's real different!!

Almeda Whitescarver has taken over the "I Love Lucy" show with a program called "I Love Men". Robert Watson is the announcer and he advertises a new brand of non-smear lipstick called "Smackie-Mouf".

Emily Wallace recently opened up a new rest home for bachelors and Joyce Yandle is her assistant.

Emily Lee is engaged for the fifth time and the whole city of Matthews is hoping she'll go through with it this time."

"I suppose she returned all of the other rings?" I said, meaning no harm. "What ever became of Sallie McConnell?"

"Oh, she's making records now, and she has a new one out called "Black Sun." It's real eerie as well as a smash hit!"

"It's really been fun gabbing, Liz, but I just must see some people. Give Barbara Kistler my regards and tell her if I get sick I'll drop by her clinic for a shot or something."

With ears ringing, we moved through the crowd. It was getting late so we decided to leave. On the way out the door we met Gerald Kelly coming in. He said, "Hi, you two. Better late than never!" Then he made his entrance and yelled, "Let's have a party!"

As we walked to our limousine I turned around to take a look, perhaps a last look, at the great class of East High School, '56. I said aloud, "Goodbye all of you wonderful people," and turned to my hubby and said, "Well, back to New York and high society."
